A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, luscious hair, shining like the crown of a queen, is the result of the use of the Little White Seal. It is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white seal, the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Ran Away With Chauffeur.

In the arrest, after a scene at Broadway and Fifty-second street, New York, yesterday afternoon, of Frank Stanley, 29 years old, a chauffeur, on the charge of grand larceny, it developed, according to the statement of George C. Coleman, a mineowner, living at the Hotel Breslin, that Stanley, Coleman's wife and $50,000 worth of gold-mine stocks disappeared about the same time a couple of weeks ago. Stanley was formerly employed by Coleman as a chauffeur. Coleman's business took him away frequently, which dissatisfied his wife. He is president of the Cannon Ball Gold Mining Company, of Goldfield, Nev. The missing stock was 50,000 shares, par value $1, of that company's stock. It was signed and negotiable. Coleman lived with his wife in a boarding-house at 164 west Thirtieth street. He had been in Philadelphia a few days early in January, and on the 13th returned to New York unexpectedly. He said he found his wife in her room, but on his table was a sealed and addressed letter to him from her in which she said she was tired of being left alone by him so much. They were married on November 26 last. Coleman managed to soothe his wife's feelings and asked her to go out to dinner with him, but she refused, and all his persuasions were of no avail. She said she had dined. He was hungry and went out. An hour later, when he returned to his room, she was gone. Coleman notified the police and they sought the missing chauffeur. Yesterday afternoon Coleman found Stanley at the Hotel Lusco. When the chauffeur saw the man who had employed him he bolted. He ran some distance, pursued by Coleman and a policeman. Stanley then doubled back to the hotel, where he was arrested. He was arraigned and held in $5,000 bail for examination today. Mrs. Coleman was a Philadelphia girl, her maiden name being Mabel Zimmer.

Frozen to Death.

Several deaths were traced to the intense cold in New York yesterday. Suffering among the poor, unprepared for such a visitation, was so great that relief measures of charitable organizations were inadequate to meet the demands made upon them.

A middle-aged woman, thin and shabbily dressed, sought refuge from the bitter cold in the German Catholic Church, at 215 west Thirtieth street, while early mass was being celebrated yesterday morning. She made her way, walking with difficulty, her pinched, white face showing the effects of the exposure to the cold, to a pew, where she sank to her knees, apparently in prayer. As she prayed she swayed oddly, and two women noticed it. A sound, half a sigh and half a moan, escaped the woman's lips, and the two women moved toward her. Her head was down between her hands. They whispered to her, but she did not answer. One of the women lifted her head. She was dead. The thin black clothing, the thin body and the worn black bag, in which were found a rosary, and three pennies were mute witnesses to the poverty of the woman who had died so strangely in the sanctuary. A Roosevelt Hospital ambulance was called to the church. The surgeon said the poorly nourished, worn body had no vitality to fight against bitter cold. The icy winds had really brought the poor woman her death.

Palsied from the cold, to which he had been exposed along the open water front, John Mason, a longshoreman, staggered into a saloon known as "The Goose," on Vesey street, yesterday afternoon, managed to reach a chair, and, sitting there an instant, stared wildly at the men in the place. Then his head dropped forward suddenly, and when they went up to him he was dead.

Thirteen persons were taken to various hospitals yesterday suffering from cold.

Disturbances in Churches.

MM. de Billy and Petit were each sentenced to six months' imprisonment and a fine of $40 for connection with the recent disturbances at the Church of St. Roch, in Paris, when an inventory of the property of the church was being made, in conformity with the Church and State separation law.

Monday's making of inventories was productive of many disturbances in the provinces. At Montpellier a small army, composed of infantry, engineers and gendarmes stormed the Church of Notre Dame. Fierce fighting ensued inside the church and many persons were wounded. Seven of those resisting the efforts of the commissioner were arrested, included among them being Count de Kergorlay. There was also fighting outside the church between Catholics and anti-Catholics.

At Toulouse members of the congregation barricaded themselves in the cathedral and sang a tocsin, causing the authorities to abandon all attempts to make an inventory. The manifestants then proceeded to the Masonic Temple and knocked in the door.

At Quenestun, in Brittany, the congregations beat off a storming party of gendarmes to storm a church. 2,000 manifestants headed by Colonel de Soyser, repulsed several attempts of the gendarmes to storm a church.

Premier Rouvier yesterday afternoon in a conference with the liberal deputies, who Monday demanded a suspension of the taking of the inventories of churches until the administrative regulations are drawn up, justified the government's action, and added that the authorities were determined to carry out the law. The deputies are considering the advisability of raising a debate on the subject in the Chamber owing to the Premier's unsatisfactory response.

TUMORS CONQUERED

SERIOUS OPERATIONS AVOIDED.

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so slowly that frequently its presence is not suspected until it is far advanced.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by profuse monthly periods, accompanied by unusual pain, from the abdomen through the groin and thighs. If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, secure a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice if you will write her about yourself. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen months ago my periods stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly that I sought to a thorough examination by a physician and was told that I had a tumor and would have to undergo an operation."

"Soon after I read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After taking five bottles as directed the tumor is entirely gone. I have been examined by a physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my periods around once more, and I am entirely well."

Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa.

Young Woman Assaulted.

Miss Nancy Dawson was attacked yesterday morning in the outskirts of Canton, Ga. It is supposed the assault was committed by a white man, blackened as a negro. As the young woman was passing through a grove near the Presbyterian church, she was seized by her assailant. Miss Dawson, who is of athletic build, fought desperately. Her clothing was torn from her body and she sustained ugly bruises about the face, neck, and bosom, but she beat off her assailant. In the struggle Miss Dawson scratched the man's face, and the stains on her fingers indicate that his face was blackened by art and not by nature. Posses were immediately formed to pursue the criminal. The idea being general at first that he was a negro, Lewis Bates, a negro, was arrested near the scene of the assault and brought to town. A mob immediately formed crying for the prisoner's life, and but for the rule of the sheriff, by which the negro was hurried to jail, he would have been lynched. It is said the prisoner can establish an alibi. Late yesterday afternoon a white man, with his face and hands blackened was arrested some miles from town, but when brought before Miss Dawson she could not identify him and he was released.

Galveston's Sea Wall

makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher upland. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco, Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic Coughs, La Grippe, Croup, Whooping Cough and prevents Pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have ward off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. WILCOX, Logan, New York. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

No false pretence has marked the career of Ely's Cream Balm. No idle promises of rewards for cases it will not cure. Being entirely harmless, it is not responsible like the catarrhic ointments and powders, for minds shattered by cocaine. The great positive virtue of Ely's Cream Balm is that it speedily and completely cures nasal catarrh and hay fever. Back of this statement is the testimony of thousands and a reputation of many years' success. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.
